

Ashghal video multiple-choice questions

Choose the correct answer from each question based on the video you watched.

Q1) What are the benefits of road directional signs?

- Directional signs help road users to reach their destination through road identification and areas, and help road safety as drivers can choose the right lane in advance to avoid any collisions or road accidents.
- Directional signs help road users to find their way easily through a country to reach the place they need to get to.
- Directional signs direct road users to navigate their way to arrive at their destination and sometimes helps with avoiding accidents.
- Directional signs are not necessarily required but help to know where we are and where we need to go. They do not necessarily help with avoiding road accidents.

Q2) What does the “Q” symbol represent and why is it significant?

- The “Q” symbol helps to identify and track the main roads in Qatar that cross from the East to West.
- The “Q” symbol represents Qatar municipalities and tracks the speeding limits in these areas.
- The “Q” symbol on the sign represents Qatar’s roads that cross from North to South.
- The “Q” symbol helps to identify the main roads in Qatar that cross the main locations in Qatar from North to South; East to West or through them.

Q3) What does the “D” symbol represent and why is it significant?

- The “D” symbol represents the main roads that cross from East to West and North to South or through them.
- The “D” symbol identifies the main roads in Qatar, which cross the main areas that intersect with the “Q” expressways.
- The symbol “D” identifies the main areas in Qatar which cross the main road that intersect with the “Q” expressways.
- The symbol “D” represents the main roads that join from East to West and North to South or through them.

Q4) On what color background is an exit number written on and what does it indicate?

- An exit number is written on a white background at the top of the directional signs at an appropriate distance to alert drivers when to exit.
- An exit number is written on a green background at the top of the directional signs to alert drivers when to exit.
- An exit number is written on a blue background at the top of the directional signs to alert drivers when to exit.
- An exit number is written on a red background at the top of the directional signs to alert drivers when to exit.

Q5) Once an exit is reached the exit number is written at the bottom of the directional signs with the name of the intersection written above.

- True
- False

Q6) What color background are directional signs in?

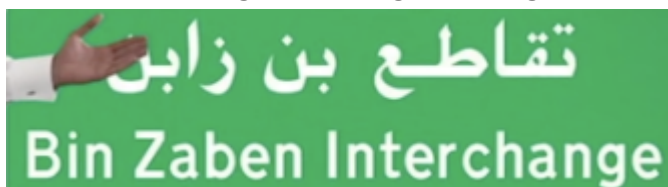

- Green
- Yellow
- Blue
- Black

Q7) What do the brown background signs identify?

- Touristic and recreational destinations.
- Cultural, touristic, recreational and health destinations.
- Leisure, touristic, and recreational destinations.
- Gardens, leisure, adventure and health destinations.

Q8) What do the green background signs identify?

- These signs identify the crossroads and interchanges in Qatar.
- These signs identify the names of the intersections and interchanges in Qatar.
- These signs identify only the names of the interchanges in Qatar.
- The sign with a green background identifies only the Bin Zaben Interchange.

Answer sheet

Check you answer sheet to be provided after answering all questions

Peer-assessment - use different colored pen for comments

- 1) a
- 2) d
- 3) b
- 4) a
- 5) a
- 6) c
- 7) b
- 8) b

How well do you know the purpose of directional signs?

Score	Achievement	Action
0-4	Basic knowledge of road signs in Qatar.	I need to practise and then share what I know with family, friends and others.
5-9	Knowledgeable in road signs in Qatar.	I can share what I know with family, friends and others.
10-13	Super knowledgeable of road signs in Qatar.	Ready to raise awareness and share the knowledge with family, friends and others.