Mariam: We are ready mom.

The driver comes outside the door, and they all sit inside the car.

Mariam: Mom.

Mom: What is it dear?

Mariam: Sara doesn't have her seat belt on. We must not drive until we all have our seat belts on.

Mom: That's right dear. Sara, put on your seatbelt please.

Sara: Mom, it is stuck! It is okay, we can just leave.

Mariam: No, Sara. It is not a good idea. We will help you.

Mom: Don't worry, I will check right now then we can leave. It is better to be a few minutes late. Safety is more important.

Mariam: Well said, mom. Safety is always first.

Sara: Thank you, mom, and Mariam. I will always remember that.

Role Play Scenario 2

After shopping at Carrefour supermarket

Dad: Y'alla hold my hand we will go to the car now.

Ahmad: Dad, Mohammed and Lolwa are running towards the exit.

Mom: Don't worry I will get them. Mohammed and Lolwa stop now. Hold my hand.

Dad: (To mom) wait inside where it is safe, and I will bring the car. I will take Ahmad with me. Make sure Mohammed and Lolwa are with you.

Mom: Yes, sure. Make sure Ahmad's seat belt is on and cross the cars safely.

Dad: Understood.

Dad comes to the supermarket door entrance. Mom is holding Mohammed and Lolwa's hand firmly and guides them inside the car. The nanny helps with the shopping and puts Mohammed and Lolwa in their booster seats with seatbelts.

Ahmad: Look dad, that boy is not holding his mom's hand. He is so small, and the taxi car is so close to him.

Dad: You are right, it is not safe at all. Oh look, his father came. Thank God, he is safe. Is everyone in and do you all have your seat belts on?

Everyone: Yes, we do!

Mohammed: So, when we are very young, we need to make sure we walk safely to the car and are with our parents, or nanny.

Mom: That's right, even when you're older you need to walk and cross safely using safe places. It's just when you get older you don't have to hold your parent's hand anymore because you become an expert.
