

Resource 1: Understanding the importance of plants.

Qur'anic Botanic Garden (QBG):

English link: <https://qbg.org.qa/about-us/>

Arabic link: <https://qbg.org.qa/ar-about-us/>

Read the information from the link and answer the following:

1) Highlight the correct statement from the Qur'anic Botanic Garden link.

- Plants are only important in tropical habitats.
- Plants are important for the planet and for non-living things.
- Plants are a blessing of Allah, The Merciful; The Compassionate and are mentioned in numerous verses of the Holy Qur'an.
- Living things need plants to live to eat them and live in them and have no traditional medicinal benefits.

2) Fill in the missing words.

Qur'anic Garden aims to enhance and spread knowledge, education and research about the plants mentioned in the and the authentic Sunnah of the Prophet (Peace and Blessing Be Upon Him), their terms and significance of their maintenance and . Her Highness Sheikha Moza bint Nasser, planted the initial of the plant that is mentioned in the Holy Qur'an and the national symbol of Qatar Foundation.

3) Which fruit is mentioned in the Holy Qur'an?

- Orange
- Fig
- Kiwi
- Mango

4) Which statement is correct?

- a) Qur'an Botanic Garden's nurseries at Education City consist of six thousand, two hundred and eighty five shrubs, trees, plants from climatic environments including desert plants.
- b) Qur'an Botanic Garden's nurseries located at Salwa Road consist of six thousand, two hundred and fifty eight shrubs, trees, plants from geographical and climatic environments.
- c) Qur'an Botanic Garden's nurseries at Education City consist of six thousand, eight hundred and twenty five shrubs, trees, plants from geographical and climatic environments including desert plants.
- d) Qur'an Botanic Garden's nurseries located at Education City consist of four thousand, two hundred and eighty five shrubs, trees, plants from geographical and climatic environments including tropical plants.

5) Which perennial plants are mentioned that are among the plants in the nurseries at QBG?

- a) Aloe vera, basil, garlic, ginger, and kost.
- b) Aloe vera, astragalus, cactus, saffron and ginger.
- c) Aloe vera, ginger, lupins, melon, and senmaki.
- d) Basil, cactus, lupins, melon, and senmaki.

6) What does the following reference mean: [HQ 16:11] from the Qur'anic Botanic Garden link page?

'It is He who sends down rain from the sky; from it is drink and from it is foliage in which you pasture [animals]. He causes to grow for you thereby the crops, olives, palm trees, grapevines, and from all the fruits. Indeed in that is a sign for a people who give thought' 11 [HQ 16:11] .

- a) The Holy Qu'ran, Surah or Chapter 16, Verse 11.
- b) The Holy Qur'an, Verse 16, Surah or Chapter 11.
- c) The Holy Qur'an 16th chapter, Section 16.
- d) The Holy Qur'an, Sixteenth chapter, Part 11.

حديقة القرآن النباتية

QUR'ANIC BOTANIC GARDEN

عضو في مؤسسة قطر
Member of Qatar Foundation

7) The importance of Her Highness Sheikha Moza bint Nasser's inauguration of the first national botanical garden, The Qur'anic Botanic Garden's purpose is:

- a) to nurture the plants mentioned in the Holy Qur'an and the hadiths of the noble Prophet (Peace Be Upon Him), in accordance with its terms of the environment and society.
- b) to preserve the culture and faith heritage; preserving the wild and natural plants in the nation's environment by protecting them from overgrazing, air and car pollution.
- c) to exhibit the plants mentioned in the Holy Qur'an and the hadith of the noble Prophet (Peace Be Upon Him), in accordance with its scientific terms.
- d) to preserve the faith heritage of the Islamic nation; biological diversity, preserving the wild and natural plants in the nation's environment by raising awareness of their sustainability and protecting them from climate change and pollution.