

Use this Rubric to see what Officer you want to be to raise awareness about road safety.

	In-training Safety Officer	Junior Road Safety Officer	Senior Road Safety Officer
Content	The presentation addresses the road safety issue only, there is no attempt to offer a solution to inform others.	The presentation addresses the issue about road safety and addresses a positive solution to inform others.	The presentation addresses the road safety issues and addresses several positive solutions to inform others in a creative way.
Clarity and Action	The presentation is not clear that individuals need to take responsibility towards safety.	The presentation is clear about the road safety issue and the responsibility of individuals towards safety.	The presentation is easy to follow and informs others clearly about the road actions and the measures to sustain them. All individuals are mentioned as having shared responsibility.
Awareness	The presentation does not address what an individual needs to be aware of. Little attempt has been made to address safety awareness.	The presentation is designed to make friends, family, and/or the local community aware about the road safety target.	The presentation has been thoughtfully designed to raise awareness for friends, family and or the local community on how we as individuals need to contribute in keeping roads safe.