

Treasure Hunt Resource 1a

Complete all sections in resource 1a (Treasure Hunt) and Resource 1b (additional information) at the National Museum of Qatar

Use the questions to help you find the animals	Name and classification of animal (use classification resource chart to help you identify classification)	List some characteristics of animals/useful information/do they live on the land or in the sea?	Benefits of their survival on the desert/ Mention any problems of their survival	Sketch or take photos on iPad to add later.
Q1) Which animal hunts out rodents, hares, and birds?
Q2) Which animal uses their powerful tails as whips when they feel threatened?
Q3) Which bird of prey migrates during the winter and hunts small insects and mammals in the open habitat?

Q4) Which animal adapts well to Qatar's arid environment and can survive six months without drinking water?
Q5) Which animal was declared extinct in the mid-1900s?
Q6) Which animal is the national animal of Qatar and has long spear-like horns?

Classification animal chart

Mammals are warm-blooded and feed their young milk.
 Examples: wild cats, sand cats...

Reptiles are cold-blooded, they lay eggs and have scales.
 Examples: alligators, lizards...

Birds are warm-blooded. They lay eggs and have feathers.
 Examples: Eagle, ...

Amphibians are cold-blooded. They live on land and water. They have moist, smooth skin.
 Examples: Eagle, ...

Resource 1b

Find the below information at the National Museum of Qatar which will help you to create a successful Qatar desert diorama

Locate	Sketch or take photos on iPad to add later.
List and draw some plants that exist in the desert by adding their name and any special features or information.
List and draw any other animals that exist on the desert in Qatar by adding their name and any special features or information.

Can you find any animals that no longer live in Qatar, or are found in other countries? List and draw them. Remember to add their name and any special features or information.
--	--

How great did your group do?

We tried 	Good 	Awesome
We could only find some of the information for resources 1a and 1b.	We found and completed most of the information for resource 1a and 1b.	We completed both Resources 1a and 1b

Remember you can add anything that you find interesting and would be useful for your Qatar desert diorama. This can be recorded in your journal notebook.